

Good Sales Pace Over Holiday Week End Told

Sales at Hillcrest View Estates were heavy over the Memorial Day holiday week end, it was reported yesterday by Sanford D. Adler, developer of the property in Cheviot Hills, on Club Drive at Medill Place, adjoining the Hillcrest Country Club.

are offered from $12,000 to $16,000, it was stated. The new homes overlook the Hillcrest Country Club, 20th Century-Fox studios and the El Rancho Park with its many recreational facilities.

Hillcrest View Estates is adjoined on the west by another Adler development, California Country Club Estates, where 410 homes, valued at $15,000,000, now are finished and occupied.

Meanwhile, Adler said, the display of completed "custom-styled" homes will continue daily and Sunday, from noon to 5 p.m. The three and four-bedroom, two and three-bath showplaces are located at 2705 Medill Place, 2800 Anchor Ave. and 2876 Anchor Ave.

Twenty homes priced from $34,000 to $50,000 are under construction in the new development, Adler announced.
